President's Corner

It is hard to believe that we are approaching the end of 2017. Time seems to pass so fast these days. CFMA has just hosted a successful 29th Annual Le Cajun Awards and Music Festival and plans have already begun for the 30th Annual Festival.

With each year comes changes as we all work to serve our mission – Dedicated to promoting Cajun music and culture. In October, newly elected Board of Directors and Officers were sworn in and we are all eager to begin working. I encourage all of you to visit with your Chapter's National Board Representative regularly.

I want to wish everyone Happy Thanksgiving and Merry Christmas. You will all be in my prayers for safe travels during these holidays.

*Peace be with you,
Estelle Guidry*

The Louisiana Swine Festival is scheduled for November 3-5, 2017 in my hometown of Basile, La. I want to personally invite all of the CFMA members to attend. I also want to extend a special invitation to all of the CFMA Chapter Queens to join me in the Swine Festival Parade on Sunday November 5th! Hope to see you there!

*Your 2017-2018 CFMA Miss Le Cajun,
Rheagan Ortego*
